April 22, 1934 - May 23, 2022

Joan Elizabeth Clark Zanowick passed away on May 23rd, 2022 after a sudden illness. Joan was born on April 22, 1934 and recently celebrated her 88th birthday with family.

With a career as both a mom and a CPA, Joan set the example and instilled a strong work ethic in all of her children. When Joan was not at home, she and her husband Richard were often out traveling the world, visiting locations all over the globe. Joan remained active and independent in her retirement, spending time with her family, continuing with her many activities including her book club and tax work, and caring for her beloved dog and constant companion Hemi.

Joan was predeceased by her husband Richard in 2014. She is survived by her daughters Dyanne (Bryan) Blakley and Tracy Zanowick, her son Todd Zanowick, three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Her family grieves her loss, but they take comfort knowing that Joan and Richard are together again. Friends are invited to join the family and share a remembrance at an informal Celebration of Life Visitation at DeGusipe Funeral Home on Sunday June 12 from 2:00 to 4:00 pm.
