Miss joanne you will never know how much you helped me and my family..if it hadnt been for you and your kindness and ability to make people see the best in themselves even if they dont show it..i would have never made it...you and your family have a special place in my heart....when i made the choice to move back to GA it broke my heart not beacuse of the weather and beaches but because i didnt know if id ever see you agian...you looked so sad when i told you we where leaving..and now i know why,,i wonder if you knew then that you didnt have long...your such a selfless woman you hid your own sickenss and put everyone else ahead of yourself so we didnt have to mourn losing you more than what you knew we eventually would...that was the most selfless act ive ever seen anyone do ver...;you have talught me so much and i cant wait to see you in heaven...ill never forget the long talks on your pourch endless drama form the tons of people that leaned on you and somehow you managed to hold it togher..you cared more than anyone ever cared for themselfe at some point in time...I STRIVE IN MY life now to be for others what you where for me in any situation good or bad you were a constant..i could alwasy depend on you to guid me to make the right chioce stand behind me in the bad ones and hold me in the sad one. You where the glue that held that town together so many people where blessed just by knowing you and all ofthe had such wonderfull things to say about you and your life i could go on and on...i have so much i could say to you if you was here beside me..but i have faith that God has allowed you to know my heart. and i feel at peace..Love you sweet woman..for ever....I wlll never be able to thank you enough for all you ahve done and though it all i have one reget not calling YOU after i got home..but know the hardest part of leaving Orlandao was leaving you...RIP ill see ya soon..hope i make you proud..
