“ I remember aunt Joanne's big smile and warm hugs. My daughter likes a book series called Fancy Nancy and it reminds me of aunt Joanne. Aunt Joanne could take anything ordinary and make it look fancy:) Sending hugs and love to you up above.

“ I remember Aunt Joanne was always able to bring a touch of elegance with her. She made the spaces around her seem full and beautiful. She shared that, too. I am glad for the memories and for the time I knew her.

“ I remember my Auntie as creative, loving and glamorous. As a child I thought she was famous because she always called us Darling and wore fancy jewelry. She is a sweet soul who will be missed!!

With love Goodbye My Darling,

“ To my aunt Joeanne, I remember sitting in your living room at the house on Rivard in GP and sharing my high school concerns with you. You always knew they were not serious concerns, but you listened anyway and helped me feel heard and understood... thank you so much for that. I'll miss you and treasure those conversations for the rest of my life. I pray God blesses your family going forward, we'll be praying for all of them.

“ Dear Mark, Anne, Jim, John & Dorothy,
We are so sorry for your loss. An Irish Proverb said it best, “A man loves his sweetheart the most, his wife the best, but his mother the longest.” We send our love and prayers to you and your families. Your mom was the fun Aunt we were always happy to see.
