“ Joel was an amazing human! I will remember him with the brotherly love we shared! He was my kids barber, always looking out for me and mines! He would give my boys free haircuts because he knew I was a single parent of 6. His passion to want to help other was unmatched! I will for ever miss you my dear friend! I remember our last conversation, and I have peace knowing we will see each other in heaven!

“ Joel was a great family friend, barber and neighbor! Too many memories to share but I know our trip to Belize was one of his most peaceful moments. He enjoyed being with his family, he loved boxing & he loved fishing and the sea! On behalf of my family, Sail In Peace, Captain Joel! Till we meet again my brother 🕊️📺📺
