“ Joe Porcelli - nephew posted a condolence This is my first internet funeral But if I could stand beside you this is what I would say. Aunt Johanna thank you for many happy memories. I will always remember playing badmitten and croquet in your front yard in shore acres. You always made mom and I feel welcomed even during the 3 days of Hurricane Elena. We were all trapped together in the house and still had fun. I have respected your advice and wisdom from my teens til now. You have always been there for me and my family. You will be missed greatly and always loved. Joe
