

John "Johnny" Beavers

June 27, 1945 - November 4, 2021

John "Johnny" Beavers passed away peacefully on November 4, 2021, at the age of 76, surrounded by family and close friends.

John was born on June 27, 1945 to Rev. Richard and Verlina Beavers in Maryland. John graduated from Turkey Creek High School in 1963 and received his Associate Degree from Valencia Community College.

John was introduced to his wife Faye by his sister, Carol. John and Faye were married on August 26, 1966 and resided in Winter Garden for 55 years where they raised two daughters.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Rev. Richard and Verlina Beavers, and his in-laws, Ked and Lera Eldridge. John leaves behind his wife, Faye, his daughters, Jill (husband Calvin), and Mitzi (husband Troy), and his grandchildren, Ashley, Kati, Niccia and Sorin, his brother Rick (wife Lavon), sister, Carol (husband Melvin), and sister, Shelby (husband Billy), along with several nieces and nephews.

As a young man John served his country in the US Navy. He then went on to manage and own his own truss and window businesses until he retired. He enjoyed fishing and spending time with his family. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend. To know John was to love him, he will be missed by many.
