“ To John's wife Mary, and his family:

The only word needed to describe John is gentle. He was indeed a very gentle and humble man. He always found a solution to our car problems and there were many. We will not forget his kindness in taking care of us despite being a very busy man. It was our privilege to know John, and we know that God has welcomed His good and faithful servant home.

“ To John's family,

For years he was my patient, and I came to him for my automotive needs. He was the most honest and skillful mechanic that I ever encountered. I never found him to be wrong in diagnosing the most difficult problems with my cars.

In addition, he was a wonderful human-being with qualities of caring, empathy, humility, and unfailing integrity. My wife, Martha, who also consulted him for her cars, and I were much saddened to read about his passing. We offer our condolences to all his family.

“ Mary & family-

Very sorry for your loss. John was a true gentle-man. Extremely intelligent, honest and humble. The grace with which he met his more recent physical challenges was an inspiring example for us all. Sincere sympathies...Paul Furey
