

John Edward Bye

May 9, 2009

Bye, John Edward 84 of St. Petersburg passed away May 9, 2009 surrounded by his loving children. John was born in Bath, Maine and moved here with his family in 1952 from Quincy, MA. He is predeceased by his loving wife, Barbara of 62 years and a grandson, Larry DeFrancesco. John was a WW II Navy veteran having received many honors. He was a member of the AmVets Post 8 where he served as Vice Commander, also the American Legion Post 125, VFW Post 4216 of Ocala. He loved music, dancing and sang with a barbershop quartet for many years and was an avid outdoorsman. John is survived by his son: Kenneth Bye and wife Kathy, daughter, Linda DeFrancesco and husband Jean, daughter Judy Lavieri, five grandchildren, nine great grandchildren and his two sisters: Carolyn and Kay and many wonderful friends. There will be a Committal Service at Bay Pines National Cemetery Friday, May, 15 at 10:45 A.M. Family request donations be made to your favorite charity. www.rwillims.com

Tribute Wall

“ The family of John Edward Bye uploaded a photo

August 19, 2019 at 12:00 AM

“ Sean Meagher - family friend posted a condolence Im sorry that i was not able to make it to the service. I got held up at work for awhile and was never able to get off in time. Dad said that it went very well. Your dad was a great guy Judy even knowing him little as I did. Hope everything is going well and hopefully we can all get together and go out to dinner soon Love Sean

Sean Meagher - family friend - May 17, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Melody Rosenberg - Friend posted a condolence My prayers and thoughts are with all of you. Now Barbara and him can once again walk hand in hand. God Bless

Melody Rosenberg - Friend - May 16, 2009 at 12:00 AM