

John Eric Guerrina

September 15, 1971 - October 2, 2021

John Eric Guerrina, 50, of DeBary, Florida passed away on October 2, 2021, with his beloved children Austin and Jewel at his side.

John was a loving father who enjoyed the outdoors, sports, volunteering and spending time with his children, extended family and close friends.

John was one of the founders and Vice President of Ability Health Services, an organization of which he took great pride.

John served as a Sports Medicine and Healthcare consultant for Seminole and Volusia County School Boards, as a volunteer for Volusia and Seminole County Schools Athletic Programs, served on the Board for Seminole High Health Academy, and was a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. John also volunteered each May for the past several years to Wind River Ranch, a healing ministry to veterans, first responders and many others.

In addition to his two children, John leaves behind a loving family, sisters Kathe Lowery (Derek), Gail Guerrina, Karen Gildea (Stephen); brothers Carl Guerrina and James Guerrina; stepmother Janet Guerrina, and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews. He was predeceased by his mother, Edith Guerrina; father, Carl Guerrina; and brother, Gary Guerrina.

A Celebration of Life will be held on December 19, 2021, from 2:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. at The Stables at Horsepower Ranch, 280 Campbell Ranch Run, in Geneva, FL 32732; 407-278-2868.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in John's memory to Wind River Ranch, 5k770 Hwy 7, Estes Park, CO 80157, with "In Memory of John Guerrina" in the memo/additional information section. To donate online, please visit: www.windriverranch.com.

The family of John Eric Guerrina invites you to leave a message of condolence on the Tribute Wall created in his memory.
