Mr. John Joseph McCarthy, age 67, of Winter Park, FL, formerly of Nahant and Lynn, Ma, passed away peacefully with family by his side on Saturday, July 6, 2013 at the Hospice of The Comforter in Altamonte Springs, FL after a lengthy illness.

John was born on April 1, 1946 in Cambridge, Ma to Edwin F. McCarthy and Florence C. (Hunter) McCarthy. The youngest of four children, John (Johnny) grew up in Nahant, Ma where he spent most of his time on the beach and in the ocean. Johnny enjoyed watching his father do wood-working, and from the age of 13, working with his mother at The Rockledge Nursing Home. After graduating from Lynn English High School in 1964, he went to work in Boston, Ma for Anderson Manufacturing. Years later, he worked in the floor covering industry and became part-owner of The Carpet House in Lynn/Swampscott, Ma.

A true family man, John would do anything to provide for his loved ones whether it be financial or emotional support. His easy-going nature and huge heart was what made him such a devoted and loving friend, father, papa, grandpapa, brother and son. Always smiling and laughing, his dry humor and funny antics made those around him laugh constantly. A great swimmer, card shark and ping-pong player, John loved a little friendly competition now and then and had an infectious playful spirit. He loved food and cooking, and could make the best apple pie. He loved reading and relaxing by the pool and at the beach, going to the movies and out to eat, celebrating St. Patrick's Day in Boston, visiting the camp in Vermont and just being with his family.
