

John Ray Stinchcomb

September 23, 1957 - October 2, 2016

John Ray Stinchcomb “Plumber Ray” 59, returned to his heavenly home on October 2, 2016 at Vitas Hospice unit at Winter Garden; after a valiant battle with colon/rectal cancer.

Ray was born to the late Charles Edmond and Carrie Rosella Stinchcomb, in Annapolis, Maryland on September 23, 1957. He is survived by his older brother, Charles Edmond Stinchcomb Jr. of Sanford FL. And Uncle John E. Bull of Mount Dora FL, Uncle James A. Stinchcomb of Maryland, many cousins and many many friends.

As a young man he was a missionary with the New Tribe Missions. One of the highlights of his life was going to places like Paraguay and helping those in need. After the mission field he became a plumber, as most of his friends know him as Plumber Ray, a most generous and caring man that touched many lives. He will be severely missed.

A memorial service will be held Saturday the 15th of October 2016 at 3:00 at Serenity Towers, 519 E. 1st Street, Sanford, FL

Tribute Wall

LI

“ I want to extend my heartfelt sympathy to John's family. Pray to God for help with the pain you're experiencing during this time of sadness. Keep in mind the warm and loving memories you have of him. Those memories along with prayer to God will give you some comfort and peace.
Psalm 46:1

-----
Lisa - October 09, 2016 at 02:56 PM

TL

“ Ray was such a caring person. He was so special to our family, he was always there to help my Granny. Go rest high Ray with our Heavenly Father. You are missed. My thoughts and prayers to his Family

-----
Trisha Lee - October 04, 2016 at 09:01 PM

“ Ray was such a beautiful person inside and out. He will be dearly missed by all. Our family could not have asked for a better person to have as a friend. We will miss you and your smile more than you know. Thank you for all the years Ray. We Love you.
The Blythe Family

-----
Tammy Blythe - October 04, 2016 at 05:40 PM

JM

I am very sorry to hear of Ray's passing. He was a wonderful person with a heart of gold. Thoughts and prayers to your family.

-----
Julie Murphy - October 04, 2016 at 08:30 PM