

John A. Witzman

November 11, 2009

Witzman, John A. 82 of Kenneth City passed away at home Wednesday, November 11, 2009. Born in London, England he moved here in 1952 from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He was an Army Veteran of WW II and a retired Senior Chief Petty Officer from the U.S. Navy Seabee

Tribute Wall

“ The family of John A. Witzman uploaded a photo

August 19, 2019 at 12:00 AM

“ Marilyn Serjeantson - Canadian relative cousin posted a condolence If you are related to Betty Vollmar (maiden name Moore) sister of Dorothy please contact Marilyn. I will be in Florida during the last 2 weeks of February in Reddington Beach.

Marilyn Serjeantson - Canadian relative cousin - January 22, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ David Witzman - Nephew posted a condolence My Uncle John was my favorite Uncle. He was always a fun guy who made me laugh and always willing to take the time to show me something or teach me something or fix something even if it wasn't broken. I'm sure he will be missed by his family, his neighbors and friends.

David Witzman - Nephew - November 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Ed Bishop - next door neighbor posted a condolence My family moved next to the Witzman's almost 13 yrs ago. I appreciated John's friendship. The man could fix anything! I will miss our talks in the driveway. My sympathies to the rest of the family. Sincerely, The Ed Bishop Family

Ed Bishop - next door neighbor - November 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM

FS

“ Fred Bossard - Fellow Seabee posted a condolence To all of John's Family: Please accept my sincerest condolences on John's passing. He was a great Seabee and will be missed by all. We just had our 4th reunion of NMCB 14 in Orange Park, FL and John was a topic of conversation in many of the stories we re-lived over the weekend. Sincerely, Fred Bossard Bossardsville, PA

Fred Bossard - Fellow Seabee - November 13, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MN

“ Merry Beth Witzman - Niece posted a condolence I was so sorry to hear about Uncle John. I have so many fond memories of visiting with him when i was growing up. He will be missed by many, I'm sure. Love, Merry Beth

Merry Beth Witzman - Niece - November 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM