

Josefa "Margie" Santiago

December 6, 1966 - January 13, 2010

Margie, as known to all will always be remembered as a loving daughter, sister, friend and mother. She was always the center of attention. No matter what situation was thrown at her she always had a positive attitude. Always laughing, smiling, and making a joke out of anything, everything and everyone. Whatever the problem was or how ever the severity might be you can always count on Margie to make you laugh and say "It will be better".

This was the attitude she obtained and kept from the moment she was diagnosed with cancer. It was a very long, desperate and tedious battle not only for her but her family and loved ones as well. When things were at their worst here came Margie and just found the energy to make it better.

Margie is: "The glue that keeps us all together", as best described by her family.

She achieved many things in life, the proudest ones being a mom and grandma. As we write the last page of her life let us remember her as she would like us to, happy, full of joy and most important of life.

You will be missed always, but we understand that you are in a better place, free of all pain and suffering. We will fill our void with your memories. Thank you for giving us your time, love and patience. Time will heal our pain but the love you left behind will be in our hearts forever.

You are now with God and we will all see each other again.

We will not say Good-bye but, see you later.

Ludo, (mother), Cielo, Loly (sisters), Edwin (brother), Jazmin (daughter),

Alyssa (granddaughter), Krystal (niece), Kevin, Joseph (nephews) and the rest of your beloved family and friends.

“ Margie has been and will always be an inspiration in my life. Knowing all she went through and still kept a positive outlook in life with her humor and the support of her wonderful family. She has taught me that no matter what you go through you have to live in the moment and keep a smile on ur face. I cherish the times we spent together their imbedded in my heart always. I miss you dearly and i know that you are in a better place smiling down at us. Your an Angel in the sky. You will always be loved in my heart.##imported-begin##Judy##imported-end##

“ Josefa Santiago was a wonderful woman who was part of a very devoted and loving family, and her passing will be mourned by all of us. While we are sad we must try to take comfort in that she was a very strong woman who faught to stay with us as long as she could and she is in a better place now, watching over us. As long as she is in our hearts she will always be with us.

To the Santiago Family with love,
