“ Over the years, I had an opportunity to spend time with Joey on a couple of occasions. Sure wish there could have been more of those times. Even as a very young man, Joey had a keen wit and certainly wasn't afraid to mix it up verbally with an adult. I loved and admired that about him. I also admired his love of music shared with Mike. Such a talented young man. I look forward to seeing Joey again in heaven. Right now, Jesus has his arms around him and we should all take comfort in that. I am praying that God will also give the whole Broschart family comfort until we all get to see Joey again.
