“ Willow,
"Your love for each other was truly special! The memories you shared with him will always be cherished!"
Joe was the most wonderful person and I feel so blessed to have had the opportunity to have spent time with him these past several years.

Willow, losing your most special person is heartbreaking. Please know that we are all, always here to support you with love and kindness.

Joe was the most wonderful person and I am so honored to have had the opportunity to have spent time with him these past several years.

I will always cherish and remember the numerous times we all sat together at the dinner table. Both yours, Willow, and Joe's faces would light up with huge smiles on your faces, sharing with me how you met and fell in love.

When thinking of Joe, I will always remember the way he looked at you Willow, so full of love and pride that you were not only his wife, but his best friend.

Sending you all my love and support,
Lorrie

“ Joe's smile LIT UP the family room upon seeing Willow after a long day's work. He reached out his hand as a gentle, warm gesture the one and only time we met during my visit. This memory remains special as I could sense the love these two shared, defying the odds. Willow, I wish the world loved as you and Joe loved. Margaret, his love for you was evident as your wonderful son in law worked so very hard to take care of your daughter and you the best he could despite life's challenges. What an HONOR to share in Joe's Celebration of Life! May The Lord surround you and yours with peace, love, and beautiful memories of your lives together... Love & Light, Rhonda and the Miller Family ❤️ ❤️ ❤️
