

Joseph "Melvin" Jones

November 5, 2013

Jones, Joseph ◆Melvin◆

76, of Pinellas Park (and a lifetime resident of Pinellas County), passed away November 5, 2013. He was the owner of Mel Jones Well Drilling for 30 years. Mel was a Navy veteran. He was preceded in death by his son, Kenneth Jones. He is survived by his loving wife of 52 years, Sandy; his son, Keith; and his sister, Willie Heavner; and grandson Kyle. He enjoyed restoring old vehicles and the family will have his latest project at the funeral. Visitation will be Thursday, November 7th from 5-7 PM, with the service at 7 PM at R. Lee Williams & Son Funeral Home, 3530 49th Street North. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his honor to Suncoast Hospice.

Tribute Wall

“ The family of Joseph Jones uploaded a photo

August 19, 2019 at 12:00 AM

“ Daniel Norwood - Family Friend posted a condolence Mel's relationship with the Norwood family predates me, so it is true to say that I've known him all my life. I'm proud that he and Sandy attended my wedding nearly a decade ago, and visited our North Carolina home just last year. Those are fond memories. Mel will be missed, but his memory lives on in the stories the Norwood family will tell of him. He was a good man.

Daniel Norwood - Family Friend - November 07, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Sandy Jones - wife posted a condolence I had not mentioned that Melvin and I have a grandson as Kyle has chosen to absentance himself from our lives. Melvin and I both love him very much and we miss him.

Sandy Jones - wife - November 07, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Kenny Van Zill - Friend posted a condolence I will miss seeing you at the car shows and lunch spots. Thanks for giving me my first job at the bodyshop. And thanks for being my friend for all these years.

Kenny Van Zill - Friend - November 05, 2013 at 12:00 AM