“ I apologize for the late reply here. I am truly emotionally torn and find it difficult to believe that Wally has moved on. I feel so fond of him as he was my first department chair when he hired me into the UCF family at a time when I was very depressed. He allowed me an opportunity to be a part of the economics department and provided me purpose. He always had time to talk and teach me the things I needed to be successful but more importantly he lead with dignity and class became a trusting friend. He allowed my wife and me into his home where we felt so welcome. I will never forget Mr. Joseph "Wally" Milon.

Peace to you, John Paul
