“ We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name, In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

miss you granny, love you , learned alot from you and all of my favorite memories growing up were at your house. you loved us all regardless of our choices. i will always admire your beauty and your strength, thank you for all the advice you have given me. you always came to see me every time i moved. i will miss going to get our nails done me you and my mom. i will miss your accent , your smile and your laugh. your gentle hugs, and your good food! mahal kita maganda babae

“ I'm sure everyone has memories much like mine, so many things I can see and feel as if they just happened. Good memories, something we'll always cherish. Granny, it isn't often in our lives that we come across someone so special that that person stays with you forever and you are and forever will be that person. Grandma you cared more than anyone, loved more than anyone and suffered most because of how much you cared. You endured things that no one should ever have had to and suffered most because you cared but you kept on loving more and more. Your love was a love without condition. You may not approved of everything we did and you never ever judged. you just kept on loving and letting us know you were there. It didn't take much to make you happy- a phone call, a visit, or a kiss before saying goodnight.

We were the most important people in the world to her. She lived to make our lives better and she was proud of us. We can never forget that there is a part of her in each of us, something that she gave to us and asked nothing in return. What we inherited from her can never be damaged, destroyed or lost. It's permanent. It allows her in so many ways to remain just as alive as always-alive through us. Thank you Grandma for all your love and your understanding thank you for being there for me thank you for being the greatest grandma in the world. I love you more than words can say and I will miss you everyday.

I Love you Granny

“ *You can only have one mother
Patient kind and true;
No other friend in all the world,
Will be the same to you.
When other friends forsake you,
To mother you will return,
For all her loving kindness,
She asks nothing in return.
As we look upon her picture,*

*Sweet memories we recall,
Of a face so full of sunshine,
And a smile for one and all.
Sweet Jesus, take this message,
To our dear mother up above;
Tell her how we miss her,
And give her all our love.
I Love you mom, Patti*
