“ Janet Conzolo - daughter posted a condolence My Mother, My First Love. I will never forget you or your beautiful face, smile, the touch of your hand and the sound of your beautiful voice. It is embedded in my mind. I will always hold you close to my heart. You taught me how to be the person I am today - wife, mother and grandmother. I will cherish and miss our late nights holding hands, laughing, crying, tea time, goodies and stories. I am blessed to have been your daughter. My First Love, I so miss and love you and Dad, and hope you are dancing together in the heavens.

“ jim rohrer - grandson posted a condolence There are people in this world believe it or not that naturally and without effort pour out love, kindness and selflessness. They are a shining example of Jesus and his devoted love to His children. My grandma was just such a person. She poured herself out for her family and friends and she is much loved because of it. We all are better people because of her and the world is a little dimmer because she is not here, but Heaven is an even more beautiful place because she is there. I miss her.

“ Val Rohrer - son-in-law posted a condolence If you would scroll to the words that my son George Rohrer wrote in Mom,s obituary,those words describe my sweet,wonderful mother-in-law to a tee.Her and Dads home was a gathering place for family get togethers,fun, laughter,conversation and of course,delicious food.You could not be in Mom,s house more then 5 minutes before you were eating something great!and all of her beautiful daughters were in the the kitchen helping her.Oh what great times.Mom was physically beautiful on the outside as well as inward.She had the skin complexion of a 20 year old girl and in 47 years of marriage to her gorgeous daughter,I always told Mom how beautiful she was and that I loved her. Dear Mom,I know you are in Heaven now with Dad and our beloved Jesus,I will miss you and love you until the day I die and one day soon,I will see you again.Val

“ Philip Hedger - Grandson (in-law) posted a condolence I will miss you Grandma C. I remember meeting you for the first time at your house back when Stacy and I started dating when we were around 16 years old. Like a typical Italian grandmother, you filled me up with delicious food, and then some to make sure I was extra full. I felt like a part of the family instantly. You blessed my life through our personal friendship and through Stacy. I am thankful to have know you. You will remain in my heart always and I look forward to our great reunion in heaven some day soon. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. May God bless each and everyone of you.

“ Stacy Hedger - Granddaughter posted a condolence My Grandmother was such a wonderful lady. She will be missed dearly. Here is a little poem I wrote for her. Grandma, miss your beautiful face. You were a women of true grace. Miss the days of visiting your place. And memories of you, I will always embrace. Your light will always shine on us from your heavenly space. Thank you for being such a great Grandmother and friend. Your love and presence will always leave a trace. We are all grieving her loss, but my heart especially goes out to my Dad George, Aunt Anna, Aunt Janet, Aunt Lucille and Uncle Charlie. Love you guys.

“ George Rohrer - grandson posted a condolence Grandma was a catalyst in her own way. She brought people together. She made her home a destination for friends and family to talk, eat, laugh, complain and forgive. I hope this legacy finds a new home(s) to live on. She will be remembered across 5 generations. That is pretty amazing considering she never drove or traveled. Yet, she brought the world to herself, one late night visit, one bowl of soup, and one cup of coffee at a time. She was generous with the little she had. To me, she was far more then generous; she always gave unconditional love. Always. And I remember her deeply. George

“ Debbie Sherrill - Friend of Lucy & Val Rorher posted a condolence My deepest condolences to the family and friends of Josephine Chiarenza. From what I knew about her, she had a heart of gold, overly compassionate to her family! Family was the number one priority in her life! The bond with her and her family was so strong, and not all families get to experience that in life. Her love will always be with all of you through out your life time, with all those special memories, that you'll never forget, and forever cherish. Lucy, I love you and if you ever need anything day or night, don't hesitate to call me day or in the middle of the night! Love, Debbie & Nelson
