“ I was very saddened to hear the news of Mrs. Anderson's passing....I have always thought of her (and Mr. Loren) as my American Grandparents, especially since mine lived in Sicily and were not a physical part of my life. I loved hanging out in their backyard on the swing with all the neighborhood kids, listening to stories and playing games together. Some of the best days of my childhood were spent in that backyard. I am glad that she remained close with my parents until she moved and that we were able to spend some days together as grown adults. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family and hope that you have some comfort in knowing that she is in a better place with the love of her life.

With Love,
Maria (Mary) Winter (Saputo)

“ Gma,
I have such great memories of you, our late night runs to Meier's in the middle of the night went Barb, Devon and I moved up to Michigan, playing cards together, taking you shopping, for what seemed like FOREVER, to find a couch and OUR conversations over the past few years of just about everything and everyone, all the way up to your last few days here with us, we had all the answers how things should be done by everyone else didn't we !? ;) You always made us laugh and/or roll our eyes in things you did or said but that is just so you. You loved to talk and even though you thought I got tired of listening to you... I really didn't mind it. You have been a big part of my life for many, many years and I love you and miss you. Thank you for all your love and support over the years.
I know you are at peace now and with family that have gone on before you.
Rest in Peace and Comfort with them and the Lord.

“ Aunt Joyce was never known as a person to turn down a visit. I remember visiting her and Uncle Loren twice while they lived in Washington DC. The first time they surprised me with Aunt Lois and Uncle Warren visiting from Florida. I was surprised.

I tried posting a photo of them on the transit system heading for some beer and pizza. That was a good time that night.

I know everyone is sad to see time moving ahead without her. I feel like she lived a good life.

“ Thinking of you and wanted to share some memories of Aunt Joyce. A fond childhood memory of mine is visiting Aunt Joyce and Uncle Loren on a Friday night. I would play with Snoopy, their dog, and they would take us to Kroger for a cookie from the bakery. Around this time of year, we would have a cookie exchange and decorate the sugar cookies together. By the end of the day, we were so sick of cookies, until next year.

I enjoyed Aunt Joyce's stories and laughter. She was proud of her children, and grandchildren, and even quite a few great grandchildren. She left a wonderful legacy.

The best things in life aren't things. They are the people you love and the memories you make. I have many wonderful memories of Aunt Joyce. I am sure she is at peace with Our Father and other loved ones who have left us. I pray for peace to all of the loved ones she left behind.

“ Joyce was a joy to be around and always thought of everyone. Had a wonderful room filling laugh I will never forget. My daughter has that same wonderful laugh. Always the optimist she gave so much to all she knew.

She raised a wonderful and loving family and my prayers are with those members today and the coming days.

May everyone who reads this know what a lovely, priceless gift we lost to early.

In Loving Memory, Joyce.

“ Mom - I am not quite sure what to do.....I am so used to seeing you every day, I miss you so much and it has only been a few days....I lay on the couch and wait for you to make your late night trips to the fridge or your 2am "chores". You mean more to me than you will ever know.

“ *Grandma,
It's the first night at home without you... It seems so peaceful everytime I walk into your room. I hope your enjoying your first night home with Grandpa. Andrew snuggled up with your blanket, he said he loves you Great Mimi. I hope you like the things Mom, Aunt Lois and I picked for your service. I love you.*
