“Ted, Amanda, and Family, You all are in my thoughts and prayers. Joy was such a loving and giving friend. She helped me when I was still very young as a single mother with two young sons along with you Ted. I am thankful for Chelton Baptist for making our friendship possible! We loved spending time in your camper and going on our trips to Ocean City. We remained friends all these years. Joy loved her family and friends. She was an inspiration to me as she was always so positive in spite of going through so many health issues for many years. She always seemed to bounce back. She would tell me I was an inspiration to her as I fought breast cancer. I will miss our conversations. My heart breaks because you just moved to your new condo in Florida, hadn't even unpacked everything. She finally was where she wanted to be. There is no doubt that this wonderful Christian woman and friend is home with the Lord. Her faith in God was evident in everything she did and God will welcome her with open arms. "Well done...." God Bless each of you.
