“ I was sorry to hear of Julie's passing. I haven't seen her for awhile, but I always enjoyed talking with her. She and I were in the League Sustainer Transfer group for years. She was a talented potter and I always admired the unusual jewelry she wore. My prayers go out to Julie's family. I hope they find comfort in all the wonderful memories they have of her.

I was so sorry to hear of Mrs Caton's passing. I went to high school with Sally and have spent time with Mr and Mrs Caton over the years. Mrs Caton was the most proper and sophisticated woman I had been around. I would never call her by her given name. I was to always call her by Mrs Caton. She deserved that respect. I always thought Sally's parents were so cool. They would sit down after work and talk about their day. They were genuinely interested in what the other was up too. They always traveled to these amazing places with their children. I am blessed to have known such a wonderful woman who influenced so many people and created the most wonderful family.

*God Bless You Mrs Caton

“ We are so fortunate to live next to Marcia Caton and she is like a sister to us. Through her we got to meet Julie, Jack and the rest of the family. Julie was such a classy woman who always was happy to see us. We will never forget her smile and lovely presence.

Julie was a truly wonderful, lovely human being. I feel privileged to have known her. We, in the book club, always treasured her suggestions. She is at peace. May her family find that peace as well.
