

Julie Iris Maxfield

April 26, 1927 - April 16, 2020

Julie Iris Rodoreda Maxfield died peacefully in her sleep on April 16, 2020 at age 92. Originally from Perth, W. Australia, she leaves behind her love of 76 years, SMSgt Ret, Gerard P. (Max) Maxfield, 7 children, 15 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

Julie and Max met in Perth while he was stationed there during WWII. They were married at St. Thomas's in Claremont, W. Aus, in Oct 1945 and reunited in the US after she took the "bridal train" and sailed to America.

For over 20 years the military couple and their children traveled the world. Insatiably curious, quick-witted, and an attentive listener, she was admired and loved by her friends, her American and Australian families, and fellow parishioners at St. Margaret Mary's in Winter Park. Julie leaves a deep well of silence in which we remember her.

There are no services planned at this time.

The family of Julie Iris Maxfield invites you to leave a message of condolence on the Tribute Wall created in her memory.

“ So sorry to hear about Julie's death. What a long and fruitful like she has had. I am Maria Rodoreda, daughter of Bob and Joan Rodoreda, Sydney. Julie visited our home a number of times in her youth (I was very young too). I stayed with Max and Julie for a few weeks in 1986 and they both showed me a grea time! Thinking of you all as you move through the 'black tunnel' that is the grieving process. Maria Rodoreda, Sydney Australia.

“ Julie was always so kind to me. My oldest child was married to her son, and the few times we visited were at Julie and Max's home or at her daughter Kathy's. I always was welcomed with a smile and occasionally a hug. She treated my daughter like her own- no matter what was going on, even after my daughter left the marriage, Julie treated her with nothing but love. That says a lot. Looking at how all 7 of your children are such wonderful human beings, displays what a great role model you were. You will be missed but not ever forgotten. May you rest in peace, sweet Julie.
