“ Tool came on the radio this morning, It instantly look be back to riding around in the Celica music blaring, not a care in the world. Things were so easy back then. We have lost so many people over the years, but yours has been the most challenging , for me. I don't know if that's because we had drifted apart in the later years or because the majority of my teenage memories have you in them. Whatever the reason you are missed and thought of often. Love you always!

“ I will never get used to you not being around. When I think of visiting my friends in Florida you are one of the people I think about wanting to catch up with.

“ We met in 1993 in high school, and we became good friends. We lost touch after high school, and I literally ran into you at Valencia College (1999) where you told me you were getting your G.E.D. so you can get into the military. It would be the final time I would see you until facebook came around in 2009. We finally reconnected through there, and chatted a few time through it. Then when Connor's birthday came around, you invited me to the party, and hoped I would show up. Well, I did showed up. I think I met everybody, and caught up with him as well. I had to cut the party short because I had some homework to get done. I pulled him aside for a moment to thank him again for the invite, and he thanked me for coming. We hugged several times, and said our see ya later or until next time. Little did I know that a short two years later, he would pass away. I just found this out, and I'm speechless about this. It is just a sad thing to hear, and I miss him. My thoughts are with you Cheryl and Connor. :(

“ We thought of you with Love today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought of you yesterday,
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name.
Now all we have is memories,
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake,
Which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping,
We have you in our hearts.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and the staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

I will miss you justin. You will be missed by all who knew you. You have always been such a sweet guy. I remember when you was just a little boy in middle school you always had a way to make me laugh, even when I was having a bad day that's when you would try your hardest and it ALWAYS worked. I will see you when im called home, until then I will NEVER forget you. See you soon buddy.

“ Our prayers are with you all over your loss...We hope you find comfort in these scriptures.

And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. Acts 2:21

I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. 3And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them.

They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 4He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away." Revelation 21:2-4
