“Karen and I have been friends since the early 70's. I have known her to be sweet and unflinching kind without an ounce of pretension. Always thought we had a special bond as we shared the same birthday.
When she married my best friend from high school I could not have been happier for them
The phrase made for each other may seem trite but in thier case it fits perfectly.
Will miss her greatly

“Wow I am in shock. Bob I am so very sorry for your loss. I knew Karen two totally different ways. The first time we meet. They were parents at a baseball game and I was there Umpire. Of course as all would think they didn't like me that much. I watched there son Jermey grow playing baseball back in the early 90's. Then in 1999 I went to work for Cracker Barrel. And look who was working there. Karen Hall. We got to know each other. And found out her and Bob both were special people to be around. Karen Loved serving the customers. She worked very hard. Became a cashier later on. I really enjoyed working with her. Norma and I are sending lots of prayers to the family. Lee Hood

“ Karen you will be greatly missed by many people. I always looked forward to seeing you at Cracker Barrel and having little chats. I'll probably never forget how you "checked in" so many places and the time we went to the movies and I "checked in" with you before you got there. You couldn't believe I beat you too it. Lol. Love you girl and miss you immensely. Until I check in to heaven, save me a place near you and Melba.

“ I haven't seen Karen in at least 15years but I was still struck when I was notified of her passing. I grew up with the Hall brothers and remember fondly when Karen and Bob met. They were like peas and carrots, inseparable. Karen was one of those people who always thought the best of everybody and wanted only the best for anybody she met. A rare quality that endeared her to so many people. Godspeed.

“ Karen was one of those people that you can go years without seeing but feel as though no time has passed when you see them face-to-face again. She was a unique person in many ways, one being how genuinely kind she was. You know how the stereotypical teenage girl is portrayed as being snarky and selfish, interested only their own lives and pursuing their own agenda? Now imagine a girl who's the complete opposite, a girl who doesn't gossip, and who doesn't find it necessary to put others down in order to elevate themselves. Karen was THAT girl - the one who always had a kind word for everyone, who welcomed the new kids (which was me as a sophomore at Seminole High School), who always believed the best of others and who had no ulterior motive for her kindness.

She was the same as an adult, but with an additional depth to it. You knew she was someone who'd experienced some of the ugliest things in life yet she not only somehow managed to rise above it, she let it strengthen her.

I hope that Karen and Melba are together, along with other friends and classmates who have gone before us.

“ So sorry for your loss. I went to high school with Karen. She was always very sweet and kind. I would run into her at Cracker Barrel in recent years and she was always quick to strike up a conversation and ask about classmates. I'm sure she will be greatly missed.
