“ Ms. Karen and I hit it off right away and were buddies when she moved in to her last home before going home to heaven last week. She was caring, very funny and VERY BLUNT. I called her sweet and salty cause when she liked you she was so sweet to you, but if and when you crossed her, ooh boy! She would let you have it from head to toe for hours at times. She was also very religious and a faithful servant of God as evident in our talks and conversations. Her great love for her family was also evident to those of us who had the great opportunity to meet her and care for. She is and will be greatly missed. Rest in God’s love and in peace, Ms. Karen. May the sweet angels accompany and sing to you on your journey home to your final resting place ❤️.

God bless you,
Lucy.

“Karen was a rare beauty in a common world. She was a beautiful, kind, generous and big hearted soul, who loved to laugh- a laugh so contagious that it overtook the room, and left you gasping for air. She was a super proud mom, so much so, that if you knew Karen, you knew Mike and Chad before ever meeting them. She talked about her boys all the time. She was also a proud grandma, too. She was so in love with those “little dudes” once they began to come along...
She loved Jesus and she loved others, and her friendship was a cherished gift that I'll treasure in the memories that we shared forever.
