“ Mom, Tonight I'm sitting here playing solitaire on-line. It's 4° outside. It reminds me of days when we would stay up late, on a snowy school night, playing rummy and praying school would be closed for a snow day. :)

“ Aunt Karen was on of the sweetest, most patient woman I knew. As a child I would spend time at the house with my cousins. Aunt Karen was always busy with everyone. I remember in the kitchen mostly. I can also remember everyone would sit around the kitchen table and talk. There was lots of laughing! When I was about 6, I brought my favorite doll to the house for the weekend. Baby Alive. Well, the batteries had corroded, and the doll would not work. When I went to bed that night, Aunt Karen asked to keep the doll that night. When I woke up, the doll was completely clean. That's how I remember Aunt Karen! She always had time for you, and at that young age I felt loved!
