“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Karen Wolfrey. Losing a loved one in death is painful. It is such times like this that we should look to the Almighty God for comfort. Psalm 34:18 says, "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit."

May your reflection on this promise and your many fond memories of Karen give you the strength you need to endure this difficult time.

Dear Wolfrey's,
I just want you to know you are in my thoughts and prayers during this time. I will always & forever remember our "family" years in Santuck. I love you all.

“ Jessie,
Our deepest sympathy in the loss of your Mother. Although we did not know her, it is certain she was a very special person to so many. There is nothing like the loss of a mother. May you find peace in knowing that she will always be with you, in your heart and in your thoughts. She is resting peacefully in her new home - Heaven. May God bless you and give you strength during your time of need. We love you.
