“ Kathy was my oldest sister and friend. Kathy was such a generous and kind person to everyone she met. Never did I hear her say an unkind word about anyone. I admired her for her optimism and encouragement.

I remember her when I was a teenager, picking me up and spending a sleepover night, she curled my hair and gave me a makeover, and we talked all night and had many laughs.

She was loved by her family and friends and will be deeply missed. May you rest in peace my sweet sister.

*Love,
Cindy*

“Kathy was a wonderful big sister to me, and has given me so many memories to cherish. I remember as a young kid when she came to the house (after Christmas time) dressed up as Santa Claus and how we walked down the street to the 7 Eleven and cars were looking at us b/c of the Santa Claus outfit. I did not see her very often as a young kid, but was always excited to see her when she visited. At around age 14 she went to live with my grandparents and that is why I did not see her too often. I really started to get to know my sister when I was in my early 20's and me and a friend of mine flew out to CA to stay with her for a vacation. CA holds some of my best memories ever and I have her to thank for that. She was always generous and always wanted to make me happy. She would let my friend and I drive her to work so we could use her car and we didn't have to rent one - it was my early 20's and saving money was a plus. Some of my memories while visiting her in CA: we had our palms read; she rented a limo and Paul, Eddie, Kathy and I drove around to some clubs and we partied had a great time. I spent one Christmas out in CA and Kathy gave me diamond earrings, I first had to open about 5 boxes before I got to the box with earrings. She came with me to a Rutgers women's basketball game that was out in Florida and she enjoyed her first and only college basketball game. Well, after the game was over, we walked down the street and went to a bar, had a few drinks and did some dancing. When we got back to the parking lot (from where the game was at) the parking lot was closed and we had to call security. One thing I know is that she loved me, and I felt the love. I love you sister and I am going to miss you so much. Thank you for all the memories and I will cherish them for the rest of my days. RIP
