John and Family,

I had the joy, several months ago, to share tears of laughter with Kathy as we reminisced. Even talked about several of the Civitan ladies could share a hospital suite if they checked-in together to have their 'bad' knees repaired. Little did we know, at the time, how sick 'our Kathy' was. She was loved by so many and will surely be missed. Such a fun lady. And I'm sure Clarence rung the bell, another Angel in Heaven.

*Love and prayers,
Carol Ray Skipper*
