“ Keith was always a sweet, sweet guy to me. I knew him in high school...he and Joey were in the band when I was on the dance team (remember the Shuffle Team). After a band contest , we had to ride the bus back to the school. My parents had beat us there to pick up and when we weren't there they went searching for me...in the meantime I am at the school...in the dark...all by myself...freaking out..waiting on them. After a little bit (maybe 15 mins, but in my teenage panic it felt like hours) through the parking lot comes Keith and Joey...Keith wouldn't let me stay there in the dark by myself so they drove me home...poor thing...as he is driving down my road, here comes my Dad...of course he starts yelling and screaming (he was scared out of his mind because he couldn't find me) and just a fussing....I am so embarrassed...and Keith just sat there and took it...never said a thing...just let my Daddy freak out...as I'm climbing out of the car, Keith looks at me so sweetly (knowing I am embarrassed) and says "See ya Monday" ... I know this is a silly story, and everyone has so many funny ones about Keith, but I wanted to share this because it just shows how so very sweet this guy was. I loved his facebook page, always putting on positive notes....you are missed Keith!!!

And to the family, I am so very very sorry for your loss!!

“ My heart and prayers are with the family and friends of Keith. May he rest in peace and comfort with his higher power. I look back and remember what a prankster he was with me and other's. He really loved his family with two sisters (Jackie & Karen) and one brother (Rob). I met Keith in May 1989 when we were young and starting our lives over. We were clueless but tried our best. When he would walk in the room, no matter how angry I would get with him, my eyes would light up when I saw him. My fondest memory is when he hid my engagement ring in a tiny box which was wrapped in I can't tell you how many boxes and watching his uncle(I believe) laugh and laugh as I opened each box to find nothing until the last box. He loved to fish and Sebastian Inlet was one of his favorite spots. Even though our journey was just a little over 4 years, I will have a special place in my heart for him. He will be missed by all who loved him.
