

Kellie Lynn Wheeler

November 29, 2012

Wheeler, Kellie L. 49, of St. Petersburg, Florida, formally of Columbus, Ohio passed away on November 28, 2012. She is survived by her loving mother Louise Dycus, of St. Petersburg, her Aunt, Lois Esque of Treasure Island, Florida and half-sister Susan Chalker of S. Carolina. Proceeded in death by her father Army Sgt. James E. Wheeler.

Kellie was born in Jamestown, New York. Graduated from Gahanna Lincoln High School, Gahanna, Ohio.

Attended Columbus State College and earned a degree in Aviation. She was an Aircraft Engineer for Chautauqua Airlines, Mesa Airlines and then Continental Airlines for 13 years, Columbus, Ohio.

Kellie came to Florida in 2006 and accepted a position with National Aviation Academy as an A & P Instructor. She was a member of Calvary Chapel, St. Petersburg.

Kellie's Love and Passion was horses. She loved of animals, snow skiing and diving. Kellie will be missed by countless friends and loved ones. Kellie will be riding her beloved horse ♡Eagar To Go♡ into the gates of Heaven.

Tribute Wall

“ The family of Kellie Lynn Wheeler uploaded a photo

August 19, 2019 at 12:00 AM

“ Karen Berry (Miller) - long time friend/sister posted a condolence Kelly you will always be in my heart. Thanks for all the memories. I will cherish each and everyone of them. Until we meet again sister I LOVE YOU!

Karen Berry (Miller) - long time friend/sister - December 04, 2012 at 12:00 AM