“ I will miss our talks. Kelly was a person of great depth and wisdom. Not to mention his off-beat sense of humor. The world got a little bit duller with your passing. You are dearly missed my friend.

“ Kelly was very kind and loved the children God put into his life to help raise. I remember being at a swim meet many years ago and he talked about the role he was able to step into. He was so proud of the children, all young adults now except Brooklynn. I enjoyed seeing him take walks with her in the neighborhood. His presence here on earth is missed. Debi Sabotin, Neighbor

“ I'll never forget his talks about so many different subjects. He was one of the funniest guys I know but he always had ideas I didn't hear from others. What stands out most is his love and acceptance of others. He was a consistent and positive influence in my life through some of the toughest moments of my life. I will never forget him.

“ Mr. Kelly was one of the funniest, goofiest, kindhearted people I've ever met. He always knew how to make me laugh and gave the best advice. I loved being able to go to church with him and the family. I will miss him so much.
