

Ken Scott

June 4, 1954 - February 13, 2019

Ken Scott died peacefully at home on February 13, 2019 after a four-month fight with cancer. He was 64 years old.

Preceded in death by his father James T. Scott, Jr., mother Edythe Mae Scott (Crossett), mother-in-law Naomi Weissfeld, fathers-in-law Donald Cheatwood and Howard Weissfeld, Ken is survived and lovingly remembered by wife Janice, daughter Alison (& husband Patrick) Williamson, son Daniel (& wife Rosane) Scott, mother-in-law Pamela Cheatwood, sister Nikki Ferrato, brother Mike Scott (& wife Sue Livio), brothers-in-law Don and Ron Cheatwood, step-siblings Steve Weissfeld, Tracey Lechner, Craig Weissfeld, Steve Condos and Amy Wyse, grandchildren Dylan & Jack Villegas and Devin Williamson, and many nieces and nephews.

Born in Manchester, NH on June 4, 1954, he moved to Akron, Ohio with his parents in 1957. In Ohio he met and married the love of his life, Janice, in 1977. Together they cheerfully raised their children for the past 41 years, moving to Charleston (WV), Philadelphia, Springfield (Va.), and Orlando as Ken plied his craft as a jewelry salesman and manager. Ever fair-minded, Ken impressed with the quiet dignity and decency he lived his life — and the respect he offered to all.

His quick wit and easy laugh put strangers and loved ones alike at ease.

Above all, Ken treasured the time and laughs he shared with family and friends — especially with his grandsons — whether it be playing golf, a game of Euchre, or simply chatting around the dinner table.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that donations be made in his memory to the American Cancer Society. A memorial service will be conducted at the Stow (Ohio) Cemetery at a later date.

“ There are no words to describe how saddened we were to hear of Kenny's death. Our hearts ache for you, Janice, Alison & Daniel. Kenny was such a good man and had a great sense of humor. We hope the angels in heaven enjoy Kenny's version of Aaron Neville singing "All My Life." We think of Kenny whenever we hear that song! Love and prayers to you all.

“ Ken and I worked together at Bailey, Banks and Biddle. He was just so nice and likable from the start. Ken loved to laugh, but he had a serious side too. I remember when we had a battle of all the rock and roll concerts we had attended. We had seen many of the same bands, but he was in Ohio and I was in New Jersey! I learned a lot from him. He gave me a lot of confidence to make me success selling fine jewelry. So sorry for your loss. He will be greatly missed.
