

Mr. Kenneth Edward Faulkner

December 4, 1962 - April 21, 2014

Mr. Kenneth Edward Faulkner, 51, of Orlando, Florida passed away on Monday, April 21, 2014. He was born December 4, 1962 in Orlando, where he lived most of his life.

Kenny is survived by his wife, Anita, son, Justin, daughter, Miranda, grandsons Gavin, Isaiah and Jaidyn, first cousins Bobby Duszynski (“his brother”), and Robin Hoffman, and many nieces and nephews. He is also survived by his mother, Martha, and sisters Cindy and Marsha. He was preceded in death by his father, Kenneth Ronald Faulkner, and paternal grandmother, Hazel Carter.

Kenny was an old-school outdoors man who worked as a stump-grinder and enjoyed hunting, fishing, shrimping, camping, boating and four-wheeling. He enjoyed tinkering in the garage (leading to the nickname MacGyver), talking on the CB radio and cheering for the Florida Gators during football season.

He was known for having a big heart and being a great friend.

His Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, April 26, 2014 from 1:30 to 2:30pm, followed by a reception from 2:30 to 4:30pm. Location is DeGusipe Funeral Home, 9001 N. Orlando Avenue, Maitland, 32751 (directly across from Lil 500). Phone 407-695-2273

All friends and loved ones are welcome, just “Be Purty”, as Kenny would say.

Arrangements are entrusted to DeGusipe Funeral Home & Crematory, 9001 N. Orlando Avenue, Maitland, Florida 32751. (407) 695-CARE(2273).

“ Hey baby, Lord knows how much I miss you, your hands, your eyes, your voice. I still can't believe you are gone. Please watch over our kids, they are hurting. Your baby girl can't come to the house without crying every time. Your son tries to hide it but the loss of his dad has changed him forever. Say hi to my Dad & Mickey for me.....We love you so very much honey. All my love, forever!

“ So sorry for your loss. I knew Kenny through James. I remember him on my roof waiting for the pigs to come out. He didn't get a pig but he ate brownies up on the roof. A real good man.
