“ Ken Giessuebel was a dear friend of mine for many years. I met Ken through another business friend and we worked on several CPA engagements together. Ken had a sharp mind for accounting, income tax, and computer programming issues. Not long after meeting Ken, he introduced me to his immediate family. Ken was truly blessed with a warm and loving family. During a recent discussion with his son Brian, I learned that they went fishing just a couple weeks ago. I know they had a memorable time together. Brian was just beaming with delight when he told me the story. I pray that God will bring great comfort to the entire family during this difficult time. Since Ken loved the Lord, we are assured he is with the Lord now and for eternity. Blessings to the beautiful Giessuebel family. Larry Herring
