“ For many years Kenny and the clan made our annual pilgrimage in October to Sebastian Inlet for the Snook run, There are just way to many stories I could tell suffice it to say they were the best of times and I hold them all dearly in my heart, Good by my friend you will sorely missed. To Val and the girls I'm so sorry for your loss and should you need for anything please don't hesitate to call,

“ I remember Kenny as a bouncer at The Barn before he met his soul mate Valerie. Always polite, even when he was throwing someone out. Through the years I would always expect to see him at Sonny's having lunch and would always get my hug! I will miss you Kenny!
