On Sunday, August 1st, 2021, (Kerry) Scott Love, loving husband and father, passed away at the age of 62.

“ Scott is a truly special soul. He has had such a positive impact on all of us who have had the privilege to have him in our lives and I can only imagine on countless others. In the 33 years that I've known him, he has been nothing but generous, humble, considerate, and overwhelmingly loving. It's a true credit to his faith, his wonderful family, and his own optimism.

The Love, Dudley, and Hoang families have really become extended members of our family. From family barbecues (when Allison and I were still in onesies) to countless birthdays, weddings, family barbecues, housewarmings, and everything in between, we've shared so many milestones together. This has been a true blessing for us.

While we will miss Scott dearly, his spirit of kindness and generosity will live on through Cindy, Allison, Brent, Jimmy, Marcy, and the rest of his family and friends. We are eternally grateful for the time we shared with Scott and are all better for having had him in our lives.

“ I have so many memories of Scott from my early childhood up to adulthood. They span birthdays, holiday parties, graduation parties, and babysitting. What sticks out from all of those events was Scott’s gentleness, kindness, and thoughtful nature. I’m sure Scott probably raised his voice at some point in his life, but I never saw it. He was such a kind and patient guy. His love for Cindy, Allison, and Brent was obvious. I always held him up as a model for the type of husband, father, and friend I wanted to be. He was truly a tremendous representative for God on Earth. You could see our Lord’s love in Scott. His surname could not have been more fitting. Thank you for sharing him with us Love family.
