“ Kev and I went to Ireland together and met and visited with the entire family-it was great. We also saw some great places like Cashel and the Rings of Kerry. But meeting Maureen and her clan topped it all. I wish I'd gone back sooner, but work, etc....you know. Hi to Mindy and now I send sympathy for Duncan, too. He was a beautiful soul. Love and loss....

“ I took care of Kevin for several months in 2019. I've become very fun of him, Mindy mentioned his sense of humor was one of his best characteristics. But his fashion was priceless!. It was not until this past weekend that I was aware that he passed. I passed his home and a for sale sign was in the yard my stomach sunk cause my heart was pressing on top of it. Be at peace Kevin. “ I met Kevin in 1986 when he agreed to sit on a bank board in Kissimmee, and it led to a 34 year friendship. Over the past few years I much enjoyed meeting him and having lunch during his illness. He knew his time was limited, but he kept a wonderful attitude throughout his last days. I'll miss him, a great guy and a long time friend.
