“ Margie - Sister posted a condolence Kevin was a wonderful brother. I remember growing up, he was so sweet and willing to do anything. He was one boy (the youngest) in the midst of 3 girls of the younger Hoch children. There were eight of us in all. Because he was the only boy in this group, he had no male playmates and often wanted to join us girls in our playtime activities. So, like the siblings that we are, we told him he had to wear a dress in order to join us in play. So, without hesitation or concern for his masculinity he donned a dress and played to his heart's content (he was around 4 or 5 years old at the time.

“ Kennedy - X posted a condolence I would like to give my sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Kevin Hoch. It is so sad to hear of a family coping with the loss of a loved one. Something that has helped many to cope is remembering that God "is near to the brokenhearted" and promises that soon "death will be no more". (Psalm 34:18; Revelation 21:4) I hope these thoughts will give you some comfort also.
