

Kevin Michael Robillard

September 29, 1959 - April 8, 2015

Kevin Michael Robillard, 56 of Winter Park, Florida, died suddenly on Wednesday April 8, 2015. Kevin was a native of Marcellus, New York.

Kevin held a Bachelors of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering. He held the position of Vice President of Daniel Corporation for the over 20 years. Kevin was responsible for the development of numerous Medical Facilities and Real Estate projects in the greater Orlando area.

Kevin's greatest passion was time spent with his family. He leaves behind his loving wife, best friend, and soul mate of over 26 years, Jody and their children, Joseph 19, and Kristian 10. He is also survived by his siblings Joseph, Mark, and Lucette; his mother-in-law and loving mentor Laila Witwicky; nephews Daniel Esden, Steven, Alex, Jarrod; nieces Janine and Kiju Robillard; and his sister-in laws Laila Esden, Minsun and Regina Robillard.

Kevin was an avid sportsman and golfer. He was also a lifetime member of Ducks Unlimited; passionately hunting and fishing with his youngest son, Kristian. He served honorably in the U.S. Marine Corps. Kevin volunteered his time to many local community organizations and charities. He served six years as the president of Winter Park Little League and coached baseball teams for several years. He travelled across the country with his eldest son,

Joseph, serving as a judge for the National Speech and Debate Association.

The family will be receiving guests at the DeGuispe Funeral home in Maitland on Monday evening from 6:00-8:00 PM. A mass will be held Tuesday morning at 9:30 at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, with burial to follow at Palm Cemetery of Winter Park.

A memorial fund has been established in Kevin's honor. Contributions may be made to the Kevin Robillard Trinity Preparatory Memorial 5700 Trinity Prep Lane, Winter Park, FL 32792. P.O.C. is Carolyn Wisniewski in the Development Office Ph: 407-671-4140

“ I went to FAU with Kevin and we quickly became close friends and study partners. He was a hard worker and really became a mentor to me. We did our Dynamics project together on steel reinforcement in slabs. I knew he would turn out to be successful in the construction field. We lost touch after college, but I never forgot him. I tried to track him and Jody down for years. Now I find this. I am heartbroken. A wonderful, kind, thoughtful, and caring man. I am sure he raised wonderful young men and I wish peace for Jody and the extended family. Jody, if you read this note give me a call at 919 824 0882. Rich Ferranti.

“ Just heard this heartbreaking news. I had the great pleasure of cutting Kevin's hair for many years when I lived in Florida. He was a wonderful, loyal, man who adored his family. His beautiful sense of humor and kindness made him so truly special. My love and prayers to Jody, family and friends who love Kevin. -Eddie Casson

“ Kevin and I spent many summers palling around together at the Robillard summer cottage on Lake Ontario. I have many many fond memories of those times. Although the years had separated us and we didnt keep in touch, I was always kept up to date with how Kevin and his family were doing. He will be missed. God Bless Kevin and may the Lord keep watch over Kevin's family.

*Love,
