Subbu house was like our home away from home. We were privileged to be part of this lovely household. Subbu auntie gave us motherly affection and in a way moulded our lives to become disciplined, cultured well mannered human beings. She had a magnetic personality and exceptional cooking, gardening, musical skills to name a few. She would always be remembered with much love and reverence. Praying for her soul to RIP. 🙏 Rita & Avinash

“ From 1964, your place at ATIRA was a second home to me.

I remember the Ada Dosa and Poha Upma that Lakshmi Aunty used to make for us -- even as we kids are busy discussing all sorts of subjects under the sun.

How I miss those days!

“ Mummy you will be missed a lot. I learnt to live a very disciplined life from you. It actually helped me to do lot of multitasking over years. I remember you would keep yourself always busy cooking, gardening, socializing, reading and many more things. May we continue to get blessings from wherever you are.
RIP

“ Dear Aunty, those of us from the Class of 71 who enjoyed your affection in giving us a home away home will never forget how you adopted us. We could always drop by and enjoy the warmth of your hospitality and not to forget the lovely food you always had for us. Our two year stay at Vastrapur would not have been as enjoyable as it turned out but for you and uncle and the children. Thank you for all that you did for us and we pray for your peace. Raja, on behalf of the Class of 71

The family of LAKSHMIben or LAKSHMI Subbu as she was known, was very close to us for decades, ever since I (Prabhu) joined ATIRA in 1961, and Doris, my wife came as a teenage bride to ATIRA, in 1964. For Doris, LAKSHMIben's fond care was a motherly help in the new place far from home in those early days.

LAKSHMIben endeared herself with every one with her spontaneous and kind hospitality to all, especially for newcomers to ATIRA.

She was an allrounder with her expert cooking and home management on one side and her lively participation in sports and social activities too side by side.

She was also expert in driving their Fiat Car, which in India in those days for a woman to drive used to be eye-popping. She was ready to help, and for us it is memorable, that she drove Doris to the Hospital where our son Sabar was born.

Though it is sad that LAKSHMIben is no more, for us she will live on through loads of fond memories of her and every member of the SUBRAHMANYAM family.
