

Lamar Hughes

February 25, 1928 - April 7, 2012

Born in Orlando, FL February 25, 1928 to Walter Hughes and Clifford Purcell Hughes.

Predeceased by his wife, Helen D. Hughes in 2009, his grandsons Nevin Ivester and Timothy Holt, and brother Lionel Hughes.

Lamar was a heavy equipment operator, working in construction on many road projects in the state, including the construction of I-4. He retired in 1993, having resided in Brooksville for many years. He relocated to Sanford and resided at Bram Towers until 2008. After a long period of over three years in Lake Mary Rehab, he passed away on Saturday, April 7, 2012.

Lamar loved his savior Jesus Christ, his family, country music, eating out, and being "the mayor" of Lake Mary Rehab. He knew every employee's name and their life stories and thought of them as family.

His family is a large one, leaving behind his son, James (Laura) Hughes, daughters, Dorothy Ivester (Jim), Lenora (Milton) Johnson, Stepsons, Barry (Kristen) Shipes-Beacon NY, Kelly (Gina) Birmingham-Jacksonville, FL, Stepdaughters, Glynnola (Paul) White-Newberry, FL, Linda (Jack) Holt-Sanford, Terry (William) Cauley-Bunnell, FL, and Kim McQueen-Ocala. He has numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Services will be Saturday, April 14, 2012, 1:00 PM, at DeGusipe Funeral Home, Sanford. Interment will be at All Souls Catholic Cemetery, Sanford.
