“ Dear Lance's Family,

My heart is filled with sadness at your loss of Lance. I cannot imagine the pain you feel right now but I wanted to let you know that my loving thoughts are with you. I can only say how much I will miss Lance. No words can express how much a part of your life. Lance was, and will always be, held in your heart forever.

Lance was a jewel among us, always giving us a shining example of kindness, caring, loving and fun. He was a fantastic Father, and one of the most genuine friends that I have ever had the honor of knowing.

Your family and Lance are in my thoughts and prayers. Please let me know if there is anything I can do.

God bless,

“ Lance, I am extremely saddened by your loss. You truly were a good hearted person who went out of his way not to hurt people. Thank you for everything you did with helping me at work and getting back to school. We always seemed to have a special bond because we shared the same exact birthday 3/29/77. I pray that God gives your family strength through this tough time and I pray that your beautiful children remember how special their father was. Till we meet again good buddy. And by the way, I will carry the torch and be rooting for the Cleveland Browns from this day forward!###imported-begin##Henry Ramos###imported-end##

“ *Dear precious ones,
Words are inadequate and grief can be unbearable. From our whole family, I am sending love and condolences. I will remember Lance as the little blond curly headed boy playing on our backyard swing set. That little boy grew up to be a strong man! As these next days approach, I pray that God will fill you with hope even in the middle of overwhelming grief. Romans 15:13 "May the God of HOPE fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in Him, so that you may overflow with HOPE by the power of the Holy Spirit." Trust Him with all of your questions and grief. One step, one swallow, one blink at a time. “ My dear family you are in my prayers for I know words cannot express the loss you are feeling. Lance will be greatly missed by all. I really only have memories of him when he was little, but they will be with me always. I remember visiting in Cleveland and all of us cousins would ride our bikes in the cul-de-sac having not a care in the world. I will also remeber Lance's love for Willie Nelson, he would play that album on the record player over and over and we would all dance! Elvira!! May you find peace in your memories too! “ My dear precious family, words are so scarce and inadequate during this very difficult time. Our main memories are of the little innocent children playing without a care in the world, how the cousins loved our Christmas gift exchanges every year. Don't worry about anything, instead pray about everything. Tell God what you need & thank Him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts & minds as you live in Christ Jesus. Phil. 4:6-7 Love you all, Denny & Sharon###imported-begin###Uncle Denny & Aunt Sharon Pallay###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the Visnich family. Lance was a kind soul with a caring heart and wonderful zest for life. He was a pleasure to be around with his upbeat personality and will be missed. I am saddened by his passing as it has come too soon in his life. He shared a birthday with my son and I will always think of him on that day.

God Bless.

“ Lance,
You brought great joy to your friends and fellows. Your smile was contagious and you give great hugs! To your family, my deepest prayers for their grief and sorrow. To your children, may they grow up with the peace that their father loved them unconditionally and will always be with them. To you, my friend, I still owe you that diet coke.....til we meet again. I will smile often whenever I drink one, laughing at our conversation of our great love of diet coke. God bless all who knew you in these times of sorrow and grief.

“ To Lance's Family,

Your family helped raise me to be the man I am today. Back when life was a little more simple and high school attendance was my biggest concern, Lance and Shayne were like brothers to me. It is a shame that time and distance had kept us from a relationship. Lance was always so full of life. I regret not knowing the man he had become. My deepest sympathys and condolences go out to Debra, Shayne, Janelle and his entire family.

“ Dear Lance “Chucky” What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. May the peace which comes from the memories of love shared, comfort your family now and in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Gino Rampolla##imported-end##

“ The night is bright, with a starlit sky, I sit and think, as time passes by. Oh starry night, with a moonlit sky, take me away, and tell me why. Give me a reason, for love's end, give me a reason, for why we have lost a friend. I sit and think, all night but I know The angels are always near to those who are grieving, to whisper to them... that their loved ones are safe in the hand of God.Love, Prayers and thoughts to the Visnich family.##imported-begin##Kristin Kurtz##imported-end##

“ Dear sorrowing ones,
How we hurt for and with you in the loss of your precious son, brother and friend!

As we reflected on memories, two very special ones came to mind. First, the day Lance was presented at church for baby dedication with his cousins Jonathan Pally and Todd (our son) - how those cousins enjoyed each other as children, and how they kept us busy running after them!

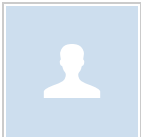

The second memory made us smile...Lance as a little guy spent the night at our house. After a large breakfast of donuts and cereal, he very politely asked if we had any "ham and eggs"! We hope this allows you to smile as well.

May the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3) be your comfort during this difficult time.

Please know our love and care too.##imported-begin##(Great Uncle)Ray and (Great Aunt)Rose Maki##imported-end##
