“ Laura was my neighbor but more than that she became my best friend. She was strong, compassionate, opinionated, smart-smart-smart about so many things and she taught me something new almost daily. She loved and supported me, my little dogs and family through good times and tough times. I am so grateful to have known her and will miss her every day. She enjoyed her life and was so proud of her sons and her granddaughter. I'm sure she's in the hands of God now watching all of us for kind conduct and proper spelling! glendia
