“ Dear Laura Mae as I sometimes use to call you because you are such a Southern Bell with always a smile and little laugh for all to see and hear. You will be missed at all the Christmas's and Thanksgiving's we always spent together at the Lacey's, either Bill's, my daughters wonderful husband or Bob's. We have had some good times and many memories that all of us left behind can share and enjoy remembering you through the years! My thoughts and prayers to all of your beautiful family, God Bless you Laura. Sincerely, Lisa B. Begley
