“ Anna - Granddaughter posted a condolence My dear "Brannie", As I sit here in the early morning, I think of you. As I go about my day at home or at work, I think of you. When I crawl into bed and lie down to sleep, I think and pray for you. I miss you. There are so many things that I miss already. I miss our talks, our special times together, our love and respect for each other. I miss your guidance, your wisdom and your patience. You had such a free, calming spirit about you. Despite the physical distance that kept us apart, we remained extremely close. I can not thank you enough for your unconditional love bestowed upon me, my children and my grandchildren. You were such a selfless person which is a testament to the reason that anyone and everyone that met you LOVED you.

“ Bambi - Granddaughter posted a condolence When I made you our "Brannie" I must have known that you were not an ordinary grandmother. You were too young, beautiful, silly, fun, and modern to be a grannie. You were special and always made each of us feel special too. I'll miss that. I loved every minute we spent together and my heart aches now that your gone.

“ Mike - grandson posted a condolence To one of the sweetest people in all the world, my Brannie, I will miss you dearly, as will all your family here in PA. You were always so kind and loving, so positive in your view on life. I always looked forward to your letters, and the far too seldom times I got to see you. You were so supportive and uplifting during my time of grief when Lisa passed. You were so happy and supportive when I met Wendy, I wish you could have met her. And I wish my children would have gotten to know you better, to appreciate more, what a wonderful woman you were. Love and miss you, Mike Jr.

“ Richard Manning - Son posted a condolence My Loving Mother! You have been the blessing and matriarch of our family for many years. We have all looked to you throughout the years for the wisdom, nurturing, guidance, unconditional love and affection that only you could provide and have tirelessly and willingly given to us all. We owe you more than money could buy, words could ever express or emotions could possibly do justice in repaying the heart of your true love for us all. My heart aches deep into my soul from the broken piece of my heart you have taken with you on your new journey. I know the ones you are with now have waited a long time to see you again and I also know that you are overjoyed to see them, but know I will be here longing to see you again until that time arrives for me. To me you are the best Mom there ever was or will be and my love and devotion to you will live in me eternally. Until we meet again! â€”â€” Your Loving Son Richardâ€”â€”
