“ In loving memory of my nephew, Leonard Brian, who departed this earth too early.

You were a very kind, humourous and devoted person. Will miss immensely your Facebook posts. However, Father God who does all things well, decided in His wisdom to take you home. No more pain. No more parting. No more problems. You're gone but you're not forgotten. Rest in peace!

Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. Will meet you again in the Rapture some sweet day!

Sincere love and prayers extended to your precious wife Dawn; your loving daughter Bianca and the entire bereaved family.

From Aunt Dawn, Uncle Lloyd, and our family in Canada, Australia and England.

“ We knew Uncle Brian for many years now. If it was not for him and Auntie Dawn, we may have never gone to Carabana which is in Toronto Canada. We celebrated my Birthday in Florida together several times. We spent time with Uncle Brian, and what I remember most is his laughter. He will be missed. I give my condolences to Auntie Dawn, Bianca, and everyone who was touched by Uncle Brian's life. I am truly sorry for the loss of a loved one. RIP Uncle Brian.

“ *Uncle Brian, it's a sorrow to know you are no longer with us. You have always been so kind to me and my family and I'll carry so many memories of you. Especially you sneaking me cigarettes so my parents wouldn't catch me! Our deepest condolences to Aunt Dawn, Bianca, and the entire family. Sleep in peace. Love Soraya, “ Uncle Brian, you've shocked us. Only a few weeks ago I spoke to you and I was trying to convince you to come to Guyana, but God had other plans for you. We enjoyed spending time with you and we wished if we had more time. I will miss your jokes, your laughter and teasing. I will miss those phone calls and checking in on you. I will miss seeing your posts on Facebook that makes us smile and makes us say, "That's got to be Uncle Brian who posted that!". I'm Still in disbelief as I type this. May God have mercy on you, and May you be granted heaven. Rest In Peace Uncle Brian. We will always remember you.

“ The day you left no one expected, that day was very traumatizing. No one could understand why, no chance to even say goodbye. My tears will never cease to flow, I cannot bear to see you go. We share a past no one else can know. Now I will never see your face again.

Brother of mine you were always there. Through thick and thin we laughed and cried. Memories only we can share of childhood days. Our love for each other was always there. I knew that you would never cease to care. I remember them through anguished tears. My brother why did this happen to you, a kind, loyal, loving dad. You have given your family so much love, and you've always been such a good friend. I know that you will watch over us from above and be there for me at my life's end.

Your sister Sherron, brothers Kennard, Evarard and Reard. The link in our chain is broken where there was 5 is now 4. We will surely miss you. I will miss my Wednesday and Saturday calls just to see how I was doing.

“ I have such fond memories of us growing up as cousins in Guyana. And as we grew older and grew apart b/c of distance. I enjoyed the few times we were able to connect and visit in Canada and in Florida. I also enjoyed your humorous posts on fb. You will be missed so much my dear cuz. ❤️
