“ Frank Thomas - Co-worker posted a condolence Red and I were partners on Rescue 2 and Rescue 3 in 1980-1983. He was a great mentor to me. I will always remember his life lessons as well as his ability as a medic. We had some great times together working on the fire department. My condolences to his family.

“ Jimmy Lofton - Friend/CoWorker posted a condolence Red and I served on the St.Petersburg Fire Department as Firefighter/Paramedics. We were in the first Paramedic Class under DOT (1974). Red was the yardstick of which Paramedics were judged. He was the best. I will all ways remember Red as a special person and friend. May God bless and watch over Red's family.

“ X. McNeal - Community Volunteer posted a condolence I was sorry to hear of the loss of your family member, Leroy. After reading Leroy's obituary, it seemed to me that Leroy was a caring, funny, and generous man. I too have lost many family and friends in death who were just like Leroy. May you find encouragement in the following scripture: Revelation 21:4.

“ Clifford Lucido - Friend posted a condolence Leroy "Red" worked for me conducting Fire & Life Safety training at Colgate Palmolive Company for several years after he retired from the Fire Department. We traveled extensively together. If you knew "Red" well enough, you were aware of his rough exterior, his quick and funny sayings but most of all, his warm and caring heart! My condolences to Elaine and family.

“ Jack & Rita Soule - 2nd Cousin posted a condolence Our thoughts and prayers are with Elaine and family. During my career with the police department, I remember having Red as a paramedic respond to many calls that I was on and we would always find time to talk about family. Although I haven't seen him for a number of years, I will always have fond memories of him. Rest in peace, Red.
