“ Uncle Leslie, you have fought the good fight, endured many battles, overcome many obstacles, suffered through trials and debilitating pain. You were a fierce warrior, but now the battle is finished and the warrior is at rest. No more suffering and no more pain. I will miss your loving ways, your sense of humor, our long conversations with lots of memories of “the good old days” when most of the family lived closer in CT, and you calling me “baby girl”. Forever in loving memory, until we meet again! ❤️🙏

2 Timothy 4:6-8 (NKJV)

“6 For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand. 7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8 Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing”
